IV. APPLICATION FEE AND TUITION DEPOSIT

The $50 application fee and $250 tuition deposit ($300 total) must be paid before your application can be processed. The tuition deposit will be deducted from your tuition cost when you enroll.

If you would like for your admission documents to be sent by UPS express mail, an additional fee of $50 must be included with your application fee and tuition deposit (a total payment of $350). If you do not want to pay the express mail fee, your documents will be sent by regular mail.

Both the $50 application fee and the $250 tuition deposit are valid for one year. The $50 application fee is non-refundable, while the $250 tuition deposit is refundable only if your visa is denied. In order to receive a refund of the $250 tuition deposit, you must submit a written request within 30 days of the denial and include proof of the denial along with your original I-20 form. You may begin this process by email or fax; however, the written request, proof of denial, and original I-20 form must be received in the ELI office before a refund will be issued.

HOW TO PAY: Instructions on how to pay these fees will be sent to you by email after your application is received in the ELI office.
